17	Document	VOL_III.docx — Dūṣaṇa Pañjī (dūṣaṇa pañjī) — Ṭebulakā entries 1–97
18	Nature	A genealogical register of lineage pollutions / prohibited alliances (dūṣaṇa = blemish/pollution). Records kulas with inter-caste marriages, devadāsī connections, nimna-kula (degraded lineage), niṣiddha-kula (prohibited lineage), kocarāja-patnī (wives of cow-herder kings), antahjātiya (inter-caste) unions.
19	Structure	Each numbered entry (1–97) records: (1) village list across columns; (2) personal names in those villages across 2–5 rows; (3) footer line = progenitor reference (sutā/sutra + ref number like 178/1) + special_status note
20	Entry numbering	1–97 (tebulakā 1–97 as stated in header). Some numbers missing = merged with prior entry (e.g. 5 absent, entry 4 has two sub-blocks)
21	Column structure	Tab-separated: each tab = one village column. Variable number of columns per entry (6–12). Village names in row 1, personal names in rows 2+, aligned positionally.
22	Progenitor_Ref_IASṬ	Cross-reference number (e.g. 178/1, 208/2) linking to the Upa-Tīpa Pañjī. Format: [register_no]/[entry_no]
23	Special statuses	nimna-kula = degraded/lower gotra; niṣiddha-kula = prohibited lineage (marriages forbidden); antahjātiya = inter-caste union; devadāsī = temple dancer/courtesan; kocarāja-patnī = wife of cowherd/low-caste king
24	(ajñāta)	ajñāta = unknown/unidentified person in that village column
25	IASṬ	ISO 15919 — same standard as Khaṇḍa 2. IPA→IASṬ conversion applied to all fields.
